Taitung Service Learning A Journey of Love and Care

崇基學院鼓勵同學積極參與社會服務，每年暑假均會舉辦本地及非本地服務學習計劃，讓同學親身與鄰舍和社區服務者交流，從中就社會議題和個人成長反思和學習。二〇二三年上半年起疫情放緩，「台東服務學習計劃」在各方配合下，於同年七月順利舉行。來自不同學系的十六位崇基同學，沿著美麗的海岸線，向著未知的台東縣鹿野鄉永安社區、瑞源社區及關山鎮電光部落進發。同學分別在兩個社區服務和體驗，經歷了不一樣的暑假。

從「外來人」到「自己人」

「台東2626市集」是同學參與的首個大型活動，在永安武陵綠色隧道舉行，吸引遊客前來選購價廉物美的台東優質農產品和手工藝品。同學參加了兩星期的2626市集服務，與當地人分享香港特色，售賣原創香港街頭小食和特色事物為主題的明信片、親手製作的雞蛋仔和香港特色飲料等，並提供藝術彩繪和henna手繪服務，為瑞源小學堂籌款。當中同學發揮創意，並藉與當地人和遊客交流，了解不同人的生活，助同學融入當地社群。市集服務讓同學與台東產生連結，從一開始與當地分享香港特色的「外來人」，到彷彿如「自己人」般向各地旅客分享永安特色，為推廣台東盡一分力。

從「十六人」到「一體」

另一項活動「八個野鹿來辦桌」，讓世界各地的參加者以實惠的價錢，享用十六道鹿野鄉各社區和部落的特色佳餚，而這次同學亦有幸參與歷來最大規模的二百多位參加者的辦桌。烈日下，同學紛紛投入佈置場地一搬椅桌、選鳳梨、清潔餐具碗碟、裝飾會場，眾人互相合作，一絲不苟地為活動作好準備。

Dedicated to encouraging students to participate in social service proactively, Chung Chi College organises local and non-local service-learning programmes every summer, allowing students to learn about and reflect on social issues and self-development through their interaction with neighbourhood and community service providers. Given that the pandemic wave continued to subside from the first half of 2023, the Taitung Community Service-Learning Programme was held successfully in July with the support of various parties. The journey started with a warm welcome from the locals. Sixteen Chung Chi students from different departments were divided into four groups, each of which provided services and experienced local culture and lifestyle in two of the three local communities, namely Luye Township's Yong'an Community and Ruiyuan Community or Guanshan Township's Kaadaadaan (Dianguang) Tribe in Taitung County. Their effort rewarded them with an extraordinary and meaningful summer vacation.

From "Foreigners" to "the Homegrown"

Taitung 2626 Farm Market was the first large-scale event the students joined. It is held at the Wuling Green Tunnel, attracting tourists worldwide to visit and buy economical and high-quality local agricultural products and handicrafts. The students participated in the 2626 Market service for two weeks. To raise funds for "Ruiyuan xiao xue tang (Ruiyuan Little Learners)", they created a series of products for sale including postcards themed on the views and street snacks of Hong Kong, handmade egg waffles, and Hong Kong specialty beverage, as well as artistic paintings and henna painting services. The students unleashed their creativity, and communicated with local people, through which they could understand the lives of different people and try to integrate into the local community. The market service allowed the students to connect with Taitung. They introduced the characteristics of Hong Kong to the locals on the one hand, and shared Yong'an specialties with tourists worldwide to promote Taitung on the other, transforming themselves from foreigners to the "homegrown" at last.

From "Sixteen Individuals" to "One"

The event "Ba ge ye lu lai ban zhuo (Banquet of Eight Wild Deer)" allows participants worldwide to enjoy a

The students' mural creation added colour to the farm glass wall.

面對使人頭昏腦脹的繁重工作量、各人工作態度的差異、組員不慎受傷等情況，同學難免有氣餒的時候。然而，當地工作人員的關心、同行導師的幫助及同學間的鼓勵，溫暖了眾人的心，給予他們繼續堅持的動力。不少同學表示這是服務旅程中最辛苦的項目之一，卻讓他們體會到團隊合作的重要性，有賴各方齊心合力，才能成就如此大規模的辦桌。

從「未知」到「滿足」

各小組在一連數天的「永安環教工作假期」中，進行不同服務。為完善2626市集的硬件設備，同學化身木工隊，從測量、切割木材和搬運材料開始，安裝武陵綠色隧道的戶外地台鐵架、鋪設地台木板，並為市集組裝較輕便的攤車，種種工序絕無馬虎。透過當地人的教導和主動提問，同學從零開始學習，體會到失敗並不可怕，重要在於不斷嘗試的精神。看到親手做的室外地台和攤車在市集中被使用，攤主紛紛表示滿意，同學都倍感自豪。

除了木工製作，有些小組亦參與了麗園農場的壁畫創作，為原本平平無奇的玻璃牆，繪畫出富有當地自然特色的色彩斑斕事物。同學感恩能為當地送上這份「禮物」，倍感滿足。

variety of cuisines from different communities and tribes in Luye Township at an affordable price. This time, it was fortunate that the students were able to join the event with more than 200 participants, which was the largest scale compared to the event held in previous years. Despite the hot weather, the students collaborated to prepare for the event meticulously, such as setting tables and chairs, selecting pineapples, cleaning tableware, and decorating the venue.

Facing difficulties like heavy workload, different work styles among individuals, and accidental injuries, the students might inevitably feel discouraged. However, thanks to the care from local staff, the help from teachers, and the encouragement among peers, the students were empowered and motivated to embrace challenges. Many students reflected that although this service was one of the most arduous items in their service-learning journey, it provided them with a precious opportunity to experience the significance of teamwork, especially engaging in such a large-scale event.

From “Unknown” to “Satisfied”

Each group underwent new service items through the “Yongan Environmental Education Working Holiday”. Aspiring to improve the equipment of the 2626 Market, the students learned to perform carpentry and provided related services: starting from measurement, wood cutting, and material transportation, to constructing and installing outdoor platforms in Wuling Green Tunnel, as well as assembling lighter stall trucks for the market. By listening to the local mentors' guidance and asking questions actively, the students started to learn from zero and experienced the importance of never giving up. They were proud to see their handmade stall trucks being used at the market.

Apart from carpentry, some groups also participated in the mural creation at Liyu Farm in Yongan. They drew colourful objects with local natural features on the plain glass wall. The students felt satisfied and grateful to have been able to give this “gift”, the completed mural, to the locals.

From “Strange” to “Familiar”

The Amis, the indigenous tribe in Taitung, believe that “both the elderly and children need companionship”. Four groups of Chung Chi students were divided into two teams to organise and participate in services for the elderly and children separately. One team was responsible for the elderly service in Yongan and Dianguang. Related services included introducing Hong Kong culture to local senior citizens at the elderly centres, making handicrafts with them, providing massage and voluntary cleaning services for the homes of the elderly, and facilitating the elderly to shop at convenience stores, among others. In spite of the generation gap and language barriers, it did not prevent the students from developing a close friendship with the local elders. Thanks to the active participation and sincere sharing of the elderly, the students could learn about different traditional folk cultures from them, and also felt loved and cared for in a foreign land.

The other team serving Ruiyuan and Yongan focused on the local children services. During the event “Ruiyuan xiao xue tang shu qi ying (Ruiyuan Little Learners' Summer Camp)” planned and held by Chung Chi students, children made good use of their creativity when joining STEM-themed games and competitions in the morning, and played Hong Kong nostalgic games in the afternoon. In the subsequent event “Yongan ling lu jing sheng huo shi jian ying (Yongan Net Zero Green Life Experience Camp)”, Chung Chi students led student participants from all over Taiwan to experience the beauty of nature in Yongan, for example, Yulong Spring

從「陌生」到「熟悉」

台東原住民阿美族相信「老人和小孩都需要陪伴」。四組同學分成兩大組別，分別參與和籌辦社區的長者和兒童服務。兩組同學在永安和電光的服務對象是長者。他們在老人中心向長者介紹香港文化、與老人家一起做手工、自發到長者家居清潔、為老友記按摩、帶阿公阿嫲到便利店購物等。儘管有年齡差距和部分語言障礙，但亦無阻同學與當地長輩建立深厚的情誼，皆因長者積極投入活動，坦誠真摯的分享，讓同學不但學習到不少傳統的民間智慧，亦深深感受到在異鄉裡的愛與關懷。

服務瑞源和永安社區的另外兩組，則以兒童服務為主。在「瑞源小學堂暑期營」中，上午讓當地小朋友發揮創意，參與STEM主題的遊戲和競賽，下午則與他們玩港式懷舊遊戲。在其後的「永安零綠淨生活實踐營」，同學則帶領各地到來的學生體驗大自然，例如：玉龍泉溯溪、爬樹、生火、射箭、露營等。同學從服務中亦受到孩子純真的笑容感染而快樂。

從「體驗」到「激勵」

除積極投入各項服務，同學亦參與一系列體驗活動，從中學習當地文化，欣賞自然生態，聆聽當地人的故事。在永安，他們參與聖安宮的交接儀式、觀看梅花鹿和熱氣球、永安自然學校體驗、夜觀與日觀玉龍泉等；在瑞源，他們學習插秧收割、整理花布燈籠館、製作客家傳統食物等；在電光，他們體驗電光竹炮、以箭竹燒肉、製作刺蔥葉粉、「阿拜」（阿美族特

visit, tree climbing, fire making, archery, and camping, among others. The students were also delighted by the innocent smiles of the local children.

From “Experience” to “Inspiration”

In addition to active participation in various services, the students also joined a series of experiential activities to learn about local culture, appreciate the natural ecology, and listen to the stories of local people. In Yongan, they participated in the handover ceremony of Shengan Palace, watched sika deer and hot air balloons, underwent the “Yongan Nature School Experience”, and visited Yulong Spring. In Ruiyuan, they learned to practise farming, tidy the “Floral Lantern House”, and make Hakka traditional food. In Dianguang, they joined lots of traditional cultural and ecological activities including using bamboo cannons, roasting meat with arrow bamboo, making “a bai” (special rice dumplings of the Amis), and fishing, among others.

Through the service-learning journey, not only did the students learn from services, but they also enjoyed mutual learning with the locals through exchanges and interactions.

From “Interviewers” to “Learners”

Researching on a social issue of Taitung was another learning goal of the students during the service-learning trip. Based on the topics selected by each group, they interviewed different stakeholders to comprehend and analyse the issues from divergent perspectives. It also gave them an opportunity to learn from and be inspired by the interviewees' stories. From the sharing by the community officers, the students felt their love for their hometown, realised the significance of taking attempts courageously, and learned that passion and enthusiasm were key elements for overcoming obstacles; from the elders' sharing, they recognised the importance

從「訪問者」到「學習者」

研究一個台東社會議題亦是同學此行的另一學習目標。就各組所選之題目，每組訪問了不同持份者，了解並以不同的角度分析議題，且給予他們一個參與「真人圖書館」的機會。從社區幹事的分享中，同學感受到他們對家鄉的熱愛，體會到勇於嘗試的重要性，學習到靠著愛與熱誠是跨越困難的秘訣；在長者身上，領悟到鄰舍間互助的重要和簡單的快樂之道；在隔代教養家庭中，明白到老幼互相尊重包容的需要；從新一代返鄉青年身上，了解到融合傳統文化與現代宣傳手法的可能性，且明白到年輕人對承傳社區文化的責任。種種得著如港灣的燈塔，指引同學在人生不同階段認真反思。

台東是個充滿可能性的地方，身處其中彷彿給予同學無限嘗試的勇氣。十六位崇基同學在十五天的旅程中不斷自我挑戰，收穫了與當地人及同學導師間深厚的情誼。旅程在阿美族常說的「Aray」（即謝謝）中完結，代替一聲再見，把相處的美好片段刻留在心裡，期盼下一次相聚。旅遊巴再次沿著台東美麗的海岸線行駛，不同的，不只是方向，更是同學內心的改變，懷著當地人勇於嘗試的「八個野鹿」精神（國語拼音源自日文「バカ」，即「笨蛋」的意思），繼續在服務中學習，在學習中成長。

of help among neighbours in communities, and discovered a simple way to gain happiness; from the interaction with a grandparent-led family, the students understood the need for mutual respect and tolerance between the old and the young; from the conversation with the young adults returning to hometowns, they were inspired to think of the possibility of integrating traditional culture and modern promotion techniques in community development, as well as understand that young people have to bear the responsibility of their community or tribe inheritance. What the students learned about and got inspired by, like harbour beacons, would guide them at different stages of their life.

Taitung is a place full of possibilities where the students seemed to be given incredible courage to make ceaseless attempts. Sixteen Chung Chi students kept challenging themselves during the fifteen-day service-learning trip and forged a close friendship with the locals, classmates, and teachers. Instead of saying goodbye, the journey ended with "Aray", which means "thank you" from the Amis. The students and local people hope to memorise all the unforgettable moments wholeheartedly and look forward to the next time they gather again. The tour coach once again drove along the beautiful coastline of Taitung. The difference was not just the direction, but also the change in the students' minds. Driven by the spirit of the "Eight Wild Deer", which refers to a "fool" with reference to "バカ" in Japanese and represents the locals' perseverance and courage to try, the students would continue to learn from providing services and grow from learning.

咖啡研究所・傳揚咖啡文化 Coffee Makes Her Day

Ms. Cheng Hoi Leng Fina

咖啡是日常不少人喜愛的飲料，喜愛咖啡的原因各有不同，有些人愛上咖啡的濃香甜醇、有些人愛上咖啡的苦中帶甜，亦有些人愛上咖啡的研磨過程、咖啡豆的來源等……崇基應屆畢業生程海菱校友（二〇二三 / 工商管理）熱愛咖啡，透過「崇基圓夢計劃 2022/23」於二〇二三年五月下旬舉辦「咖啡體驗二重奏」，與崇基同學分享她沖調咖啡的技巧、展示咖啡儀器，甚至即席沖調心水咖啡。程校友從鑽研咖啡的過程中開拓甚麼新天地？如何從熱愛咖啡到實現夢想？

Coffee is a popular daily beverage. People have a craving for coffee for different reasons. Some love its rich and intense aroma, some love its bittersweet flavour, and some are into its grinding process or origins, among others. Ms. Cheng Hoi Leng Fina (2023/IBBA), a recent Chung Chi graduate, organised the "Coffee Workshops x Pop-up Store" through the "Dreaming through Chung Chi Scheme 2022/23", sharing coffee brewing techniques, displaying coffee tools, and even brewing coffee on the spot. What new perspective has been explored while acquiring in-depth coffee knowledge? How did she transform her love of coffee to the realisation of coffee dreams?

問：最初是基於甚麼契機而愛上鑽研咖啡？

我本身是澳門人，在二〇一九年沒有實體課堂，那一年我返回家鄉。當時有些空餘時間，想找一些東西學習，恰巧在網上看到一個關於手沖咖啡的課程，於是在「誤打誤撞」之下選擇了這個課程。在報讀這個課程之前，我對咖啡一竅不通，喝咖啡只會加糖加奶，不懂得品嚐咖啡的原味，在課堂中導師讓我們不斷試喝多種咖啡，學習辨別果味和堅果味的咖啡。期間開始對咖啡有初步認識，發現咖啡其實充滿著不同的化學原理，當中有很多可以透過方程式解釋的理論，讓我感覺非常有趣，於是完成課程後希望繼續鑽研下去。

問：往後透過甚麼途徑鑽研咖啡知識？

後來我繼續報讀咖啡拉花課程，了解到拉花技巧原來要日復日磨練才可熟能生巧。另外，當我大學二年級暑假時，獲一間咖啡室聘用，因為是實習生，我最初只能做一些雜務，例如夾麵包及執拾店舖等，後來店長給予我機會學習手沖咖啡，開始累積實戰經驗。直到四年級第

Q: What inspired you to explore coffee at the very beginning?

I am a Macau native. In 2019, I did not have physical lessons and returned to my homeland. In my spare time, I wanted to learn something and enrolled in a coffee-brewing course unexpectedly. Before attending the course, I did not have much knowledge about coffee as I used to drink coffee with sugar and milk and did not know how to taste the original flavour of coffee. During the lessons, my instructor always let us taste a broad variety of coffee and guided us on how to differentiate between fruity and nutty flavours. I got to know some basic knowledge about coffee and discovered that coffee is somewhat a kind of “chemistry” with theories which can be verified by formulas. Since then, I have been interested in coffee and yearned for further exploration in this aspect after finishing the course.

Q: How did you acquire in-depth knowledge about coffee afterwards?

Later, I enrolled in a latte art course and understood that one can only become skilful in latte art by ongoing practising for a long time. Besides, I had on-the-job training by being an intern in a coffee shop during the summer vacation of my year-two study. At first, I was only assigned to handle daily chores, like clipping bread and tidying up the shop. After a while, the shop manager let me have a try on brewing coffee and I ended up gaining solid experience. During the gap period in the first semester of my year-four study, I worked for two coffee shops, a bar, and a coffee retail shop selling coffee beans and coffee tools. Apart from brewing and bartending, I also learned coffee branding and retailing. Thereafter, I enrolled in related courses and have attained professional qualifications in coffee sensation, extraction, and roasting coffee beans, among others.

一個學期，正值休學時期，我在兩間咖啡室、一間酒吧，以及一間專賣咖啡豆和咖啡儀器的零售店工作，除了獲得手沖咖啡和調酒的經驗，我還學習咖啡品牌管理及零售知識。之後我也報讀相關課程，並考取感觀、萃取及炒豆等與咖啡相關的專業資格。

問：可分享你參與「崇基圓夢計劃」的詳情嗎？

我參與「崇基圓夢計劃」，建議在學院成立一個可持續運作的咖啡研究所，讓崇基同學汲取咖啡知識，並可代表學院甚至大學參與國際賽事，宣揚咖啡文化。在研究所成立初期，我計劃先開辦咖啡工作坊和快閃檔。在工作坊，我講解咖啡理論、品嚐及沖調咖啡的知識和技巧，以及各種萃取咖啡的方式，例如浸泡、虹吸、法壓等。而快閃檔是讓未能參與工作坊的同學，接觸咖啡沖調的器具，我甚至即席為同學沖調心水咖啡。通過上述活動，我很高興認識了不少咖啡同好，令更多同學研究及傳揚咖啡文化。由於我參與圓夢計劃時已臨近畢業，我希望咖啡研究所能招攬更多成員互相切磋，除了讓他們學會「識沖識飲」咖啡，繼續在學院分享咖啡知識，我亦希望能以校友身分參與其中。現在我計劃利用咖啡知識創業，期望從事有關咖啡產品及品牌經營的業務。

Q: Could you share the events in the “Dreaming through Chung Chi Scheme”?

I would like to establish a sustainable coffee society by participating in the “Dreaming through Chung Chi Scheme”, enabling Chung Chi students to acquire coffee knowledge and join international competitions on behalf of the College or even the University to promote the coffee culture. At the initial stage, I organised coffee workshops and a pop-up store. For the workshops, I disseminated coffee theories, as well as knowledge and skills about tasting and brewing coffee, such as various coffee extraction techniques including immersion, syphon, and French press, among others. The pop-up store enabled students who could not join the workshops to get exposed to some coffee tools, and I even brewed coffee for them on the spot. Through the above activities, I am glad to meet a lot of coffee lovers and encourage more students to explore and promote the coffee culture. As I was about to graduate when joining the scheme, I hope to recruit more members to the coffee society so that they will not only know how to brew and taste coffee, but also continue to share their coffee knowledge with others. I would get involved in it as an alumna. In the near future, I expect to start a business in coffee products and branding by putting my knowledge to good use.

陶冶心性 靜心求學

諸位可以站在這新校園的任何一個角落舉目瀏覽，就可以知道本院所選作校址的這個地方，對於「山明水秀」四字實當之無愧。在這裡我們不獨可以在美好的景色裡陶冶心性，而且可以避開城市的囂塵和繁雜，靜心去求學；在這樣寧靜優美的環境裡，如果發生人才輩出的事實，是不會令人驚異的。

Divinely Beautiful Campus

When you gaze at the surroundings from any spots on this new campus, you will recognise why Chung Chi selected this location as our College site. It truly embodies the phrase “picturesque scenery of beautiful mountains and waters”. Here, not only can we cultivate our minds with the splendid landscape, but we can also escape the city’s hustle and bustle, and study peacefully. In such a tranquil and lovely environment, it would be no wonder if talents nurtured generation after generation.

「自然之境：抽象視覺的突破之美」曾陳桂梅視覺藝術展 圓滿結束 “Natural Realm: Unconventional Beauty of Abstract Visions” Visual Art Exhibition by Carol Tsang Held Successfully

“Natural Realm: Unconventional Beauty of Abstract Visions” Visual Art Exhibition by Carol Tsang has successfully concluded! Being the first large-scale art exhibition organised in the LG4 Gallery of Kunkle Student Centre, it provided a space for teachers, students, alumni, and visitors to nourish their souls with art. During the “Meet-the-Artist” sessions, participants can learn about the artist’s ideas and skills for creating her artworks, and discover a new way to appreciate nature and the world. Moreover, nearly HK$1,200,000 has been raised for “Project E” through the exhibition. Our heartfelt thanks for the support!

海山勝境立崇基

自崇基學院籌辦之初，創校先賢便致力於尋覓一個永久校址。經過何明華會督（1895-1975）、歐偉國先生（1898-1959）和李應林博士（1892-1954）的多次考察，終於在新界馬料水找到了現址。一九五三年，香港政府撥出了十英畝土地，供崇基建設新校舍之用。新校舍附近土地廣闊，適合學院長遠發展，同時也為宿舍的師生們提供舒適的居住環境；而且毗鄰九廣鐵路（現今港鐵東鐵線）及大埔公路，方便走讀生前來上課。加上遠離喧囂的城市，清幽寧靜；遠眺前方，鞍山蒼蒼，吐露洋洋，氣象萬千。

新校舍由建築師范文照先生（1893-1979）規劃設計，於一九五六年五月奠基，十月全體師生遷入，十一月由港督葛量洪爵士主持揭幕典禮。督憲對新址讚譽有加，他稱沒有比這裡更加適宜的地點建設學校。此後，學院不斷擴建校園設施，包括教學樓、圖書館、膳堂、運動場、學生宿舍等。巍巍覺舍，拔地而起；濟濟俊髦，匯聚崇基。

Chung Chi Embraced with Breathtaking Nature

Upon the initial establishment of Chung Chi College, the Founding Fathers endeavoured to select a suitable site for developing a permanent campus. After ongoing inspections by Bishop Ronald Owen Hall (1895-1975), Mr. Au Wai Kwok David (1898-1959), and Dr. Lee Ying Lin (1892-1954), they finally identified a proper site at Ma Liu Shui, New Territories, the current location of the College campus. In 1953, the Hong Kong Government allocated a piece of ten-acre land to Chung Chi for building a new campus. There was a vast land adjacent to the new College campus, which was suitable for the College's long-term development, and provided a cozy living environment for teachers and students who lived in dormitories. Moreover, it was in proximity to the Kowloon-Canton Railway (now the East Rail Line of the Mass Transit Railway) and Tai Po Road, providing convenient access for day students. Away from the hustle and bustle of the city, the campus is a serene and graceful cradle for nurturing students. Gazing into the distance, you can see the green lushness of Ma On Shan and the oceanic grandeur of Tolo Harbour, which create an ever-changing yet breathtaking scenery.

Planned and designed by architect Mr. Robert Fan (1893-1979), the new campus had its foundation stone laid in May 1956. In October and November of the same year, all the College teachers and students moved to the new campus and the opening ceremony officiated by Sir Alexander Grantham, the Governor of Hong Kong, was held respectively. The Governor praised the new campus, saying that this site was the most suitable place for building a school among any others. Since then, the College has been dedicated to expanding its campus facilities, including teaching buildings, libraries, dining halls, sports fields, and student hostels. More striking premises were constructed one after another, constituting a spectacular campus for nurturing diverse talents at Chung Chi College.
