The Slater International Center assists exchange students who need a visa to enter or study in the United States. All incoming students will be required to submit a Certification of Finances form. Upon acceptance and receipt of documentation, students will receive a FORM DS-2019 and be directed to apply for a visa at their U.S. Consulate or Embassy. In order to apply for the J-1 Visa, exchange students will be required to show proof of funding in the amount of ~$14,000 USD per semester. (2) Students will also be required to show access to $1,025 USD for books/supplies/personal expenses. Exact amount will be confirmed during the application/acceptance process. (3) All exchange students are required to be covered by a comprehensive health insurance plan that meets Massachusetts State requirements and the federal J-1 regulations for health insurance coverage. All students are automatically enrolled in Wellesley's Student Health Insurance Plan (charged separately) unless a student provides proof of alternative coverage from a U.S.-based health insurance company and that meets the requirements above. (4) Pay hostel fees to CUHK to receive same benefits at Wellesley College. Exchange students are required to live in on-campus housing, typically in a double occupancy room. After acceptance, students will complete a Housing Intent Form and be randomly placed in one of our 15 residence halls. (5) All exchange students are automatically enrolled in the Wellesley meal plan, which allows students to eat as much as they like in any of the four dining hall on campus. It is NOT possible to opt out of the meal plan. (6) Exchange students MUST participate in an Orientation program and immigration check-in process. Academic Year students should plan to arrive and move into the residence hall on the first day of International Student Orientation (late August).	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - The Course catalog is available at https://catalog.wellesley.edu/landing.php. - Exchange students are NOT eligible to enroll in Computer Science courses. - Exchange students typically take a full course load of 4 classes and must take at least 3 units to maintain student status and meet U.S. immigration requirements. Wellesley courses usually carry 1 unit of credit but some courses may earn 0.5 or 1.25 units. One (1) Wellesley unit typically equates to 4 credit hours or 7.5 ECTS, approximately 12 hours of work each week in class and in preparation. - Exchange students are eligible to enroll in 1 course per semester at one of Wellesley's partner institutions: MIT, Olin College of Engineering, Babson College, or Brandeis University.
